Engagement Agreement for Individual Tax Services

January 2024

This letter is to confirm and specify the terms of our tax services engagement and to clarify the nature and extent of the tax services we will provide. If you provide the requested information to prepare and complete the tax return, you recognize that as acceptance of the terms of this letter, a signature is required to start work on your returns.

1. Preparation of Returns

We will prepare your 2023 Federal and requested state income tax returns and calculate the 2024 estimated tax payments if needed (tax planning is also available at an additional charge) from information which you will furnish to us. We will not audit or otherwise verify the data you submit, although, it may be necessary to ask you for clarification of some of the information. We have enclosed questionnaires and/or worksheets to guide you in gathering the necessary information. Your use of such forms will assist in keeping the preparation fee to a minimum. If we become aware of any other filing requirement(s), we will tell you of the obligation and prepare the appropriate returns at your request.

We will prepare the above-referenced tax returns solely for filing with the Internal Revenue Service ("IRS") and state and local tax authorities as identified above. Our work is not intended to benefit or influence any third party, either to obtain credit or for any other purpose. You agree to indemnify and hold us harmless with respect to any and all claims arising from the use of the tax returns for any purpose other than filing with the IRS and state and local tax authorities regardless of the nature of the claim, including the negligence of any party. We do not communicate with third parties or provide them with copies of tax returns without express written consent on our form per governmental regulations.

2. Tax planning services

Our engagement does not include tax planning services. During the course of preparing the tax returns identified above, we may bring to your attention potential tax savings strategies for you to consider as a possible means of reducing your taxes in subsequent tax years. However, we have no responsibility to do so, and will take no action with respect to such recommendations, as the responsibility for implementation remains with you, the taxpayer. If you ask us to provide tax planning services, we will confirm this representation separately.

3. Beneficial Ownership Reporting

Assisting you with your compliance with the Corporate Transparency Act ("CTA"), including beneficial ownership information ("BOI") reporting, is not within the scope of this engagement. You have sole responsibility for your compliance with the CTA, including its BOI reporting requirements and the collection of relevant ownership information. We shall have no liability resulting from your failure to comply with CTA. Information regarding the BOI reporting requirements can be found at <https://www.fincen.gov/boi>. Consider consulting with legal counsel if you have questions regarding the applicability of the CTA's reporting requirements and issues surrounding the collection of relevant ownership information.

4. Financial Statements

This engagement letter does not cover the preparation of any financial statements.

5. Documentation

It is your responsibility to provide all the information required for the preparation of complete and accurate returns. You should retain all the documents, canceled checks, and other data that form the basis of income and deductions. These may be necessary to prove the accuracy and completeness of the returns to a taxing authority. You have the final responsibility for the income tax returns and, therefore, you should review them carefully before you sign them. Please also note - income from all sources, including those outside the U.S., bartering, virtual currency, etc. is required.

We will provide an organizer to guide you in organizing the information we need to prepare your tax returns, however, if you have additional items that are not in the organizer, please provide them as well. We ask that you review this organizer carefully and note any corrections that need to be made, especially in names and dates of birth and estimated tax payments. You do not need to correct any prior year information since that will not be used in the preparation of your 2023 returns, it is only there to assist you in gathering this year's data. To avoid errors in reporting estimated tax payments, please send us copies of checks and payments regarding estimated tax payments you made and note any changes you were notified about of prior year overpayments applied to 2023 estimated taxes or send copies of notices changing overpayment applications if you haven't already.

Completing the organizer forms will assist us in making sure you are well served for a reasonable fee. You represent that the information you are supplying to us is accurate and complete to the best of your knowledge and that you have disclosed to us all relevant facts affecting the returns. This will include ownership of or signature authority over any foreign bank accounts and the ownership of any foreign financial assets as well as crypto currency ownership. Again, we will not verify or audit the information you give us; however, we may ask for additional clarification of some information.

There are specific tax implications of investing in digital assets (e.g., virtual currencies such as Bitcoin, non-fungible tokens, virtual real estate and similar assets). The IRS considers these to be property for U.S. federal income tax purposes. As such, any transactions in, or transactions that use, digital assets are subject to the same general tax principles that apply to other property transactions.

If you transacted in digital assets during the tax year, you may have tax consequences and/or additional reporting obligations associated with such transactions. You agree to provide us with complete and accurate information regarding any transactions in, or transactions that have used, digital assets during the applicable tax year. If you have any questions regarding your digital assets and/or transactions, please ask us, and we will respond in writing.

In addition to normal tax information, the Federal and state governments are asking for driver's license numbers to thwart Id theft. Please provide a copy of your driver's license or ID card (front and back) if you haven't already or please update with any new issue date and expiration date changes if we already have your license on file.

6. Timeliness

The timeliness of your cooperation is essential to our ability to complete this engagement. Specifically, we must receive information from which to prepare your returns within a reasonable period of time prior to the applicable filing deadlines to allow for a complete accurate tax return. Accordingly, due to the high volume of tax returns prepared by our firm, the information needed to complete the tax returns must be received no later than 3/21/2024, or it may be necessary for us to extend the due date of your returns. We will prepare your extensions for you, however, you will still have to pay at least 90% of your 2023 tax liability to the IRS and 100% to the state by April 15th or incur penalties and interest. We can add additional data as it becomes available so if you are waiting on one or two pieces of data, please send in your organizer with available data and a note of missing data and we can add the additional data as it becomes available. Returns will be extended if we do not receive your data by April 1 due to the complexity of the tax code. Failure to timely request an extension of time to file can result in penalties for failure to file tax returns, which accrue from the original due date of the returns, and can be substantial. In addition, due to the failure of Internal Revenue Service systems in the past, we REQUIRE all release forms and extensions to be completed at least 2 days prior to the deadline to avoid any unforeseen shutdowns, power outages or computer glitches which would be beyond our control in delaying your income tax filing compliance. When you file has nothing to do with when you pay and even if you filed in February, you would still not be required to pay until April 15.

7. Bartering Transactions & Deductions

You should also know that Internal Revenue Service audit procedures will almost always include questions on bartering transactions and on deductions that require strict documentation such as travel and entertainment expenses and expenses for business usage of autos and computers you are confirming to us that unless we are advised otherwise, your travel, entertainment, gifts and related expenses are supported by the necessary records required under the Internal Revenue Code; that your business use of mixed-use property, such as computers or vehicles, is substantiated by a log of such use as to preclude the deduction of any personal expenses which may be related to such property, and that you have valid receipts for all donations. We also require that you list all personal days in a vacation rental so that we may properly report the personal use to the government (this does not include days working on the rental property). In preparing your returns, we rely on your representations that we have been informed of all bartering transactions and that you understand and have complied with the documentation requirements for your expenses and deductions. If you have questions about these issues, please contact us.

8. Gift Tax Returns

The IRS considers a gift to be any transfer to an individual, either directly or indirectly, where full consideration (measured in money or money's worth) is not received in return. Under federal tax law, certain gifts are taxable and subject to an annual gift tax exclusion amount, which for 2023 is $17,000 and 2024 is $18,000 per taxpayer. You are responsible for informing us if gift tax returns are required to be filed. If you ask us to prepare these returns, we will confirm this representation separately.

If you received a gift or bequest from a foreign person or trust, you may be required to file a separate IRS Form 3520, Annual Return to Report Transactions With Foreign Trusts and Receipt of Certain Foreign Gifts. If you ask us to prepare this return, and we agree to prepare it, we will confirm this engagement in a separate agreement.

9. Personal Expenses

You are responsible for ensuring that personal expenses, if any, are segregated from business expenses and that expenses such as meals, travel, entertainment, vehicle use, gifts, and related expenses are supported by necessary records required by the IRS and other tax authorities. At your written request, we are available to provide you with written answers to your questions on the types of supporting records required.

10. State & Local Filing Obligations

You are responsible for determining your tax filing obligations with any state or local tax authorities, including, but not limited to income, franchise, sales, use, property or unclaimed property taxes. You agree that we have no responsibility to research these obligations or to inform you of them. If upon review of the information you have provided to us, including information that comes to our attention, we believe that you may have additional filing obligations, we will notify you of this responsibility in writing and ask you to contact us. If you ask us to prepare these returns, we will confirm this representation separately.

11. U.S. Filing Obligations Related to Foreign Financial Assets

As part of your filing obligations, you are required to report the maximum value of specified foreign financial assets, which include financial accounts with foreign institutions and certain other foreign non-account investment assets that exceed certain thresholds. You are responsible for informing us of all foreign assets, so we may properly advise you regarding your filing obligations.

These assets include any ownership interests you directly or indirectly hold in businesses located in a foreign country, and any assets or financial accounts located in a foreign country over which you have signature authority. Based upon the information you provide, this information will be used to calculate any applicable foreign tax credits. We will also use this data to inform you of any additional filing requirements, which may include Form 8938, Statement of Specified Foreign Assets, and FinCEN Form 114, Report of Foreign Bank and Financial Accounts ("FBAR"). Failure to file required forms can result in the imposition of both civil and criminal penalties, which may be significant. The FBAR is not a tax return and its preparation is not within the scope of this engagement. If you ask us to prepare the FBAR, we will confirm this representation separately.

U.S. citizens and residents generally must report income and activities related to both domestic and foreign assets (worldwide income). You are responsible for fulfilling your filing obligations related to foreign activity where required. U.S. reporting requirements related to foreign activity are very complex. Contact us immediately if you have:

- Ownership of, investment in, or officer responsibilities for a corporation, partnership, or other business entity formed under the laws of another country;
- Fiduciary, grantor, or beneficiary relationships in connection with an entity formed under the laws of another country;
- Ownership of, signature authority over, or control over any financial account held in a financial institution located in another country;
- Citizenship or government-approved employment/visa status with a country other than the U.S. (including anyone in your immediate household, or your parents who live outside the U.S.);
- Transferred property, including cash, offshore either directly or through the purchase of or investment in an entity formed under the laws of another country;
- Received or have legally-recognizable rights to receive property, including cash, from a trust, business, or investment formed under the laws of another country or individual residing in another country;
- Conducted business with any entity or person physically located in another country, regardless of whether such business is for-profit, not for-profit, or informal/irregular;
- Received property, including cash, or income from a source outside of the U.S. which is not reported on a brokerage statement (such as a 1099-B or similar report); or
- Any other activity or economic arrangement which takes place outside of the U.S.

Based upon the information you provide, we will use this data to inform you of any additional filing requirements, which may include FinCEN Form 114, Report of Foreign Bank and Financial Accounts ("FBAR"). The FBAR is not a tax return and its preparation is not within the scope of this engagement.

Failure to timely file the required forms may result in substantial civil and/or criminal penalties. By your signature below, you agree to provide us with complete and accurate information regarding any foreign investments in which you have a direct or indirect interest, or over which you have signature authority, during the above referenced tax year.

If you have any questions regarding the application of the reporting requirements for your foreign interests or activities, please ask us and we will respond in writing. You will be responsible for tax due, penalties, and interest associated with the failure to file or untimely filing of any of these forms.

12. Foreign Filing Obligations

You are responsible for complying with the tax filing requirements of any other country. You acknowledge and agree that we have no responsibility to raise these issues with you and that foreign filing obligations are not within the scope of this engagement.

13. Ultimate responsibility

You have final responsibility for your tax returns. We will provide you with a copy of tax returns and accompanying schedules and statements for review prior to filing with the IRS and state and local tax authorities (as applicable). You agree to review and examine them carefully for accuracy and completeness.

You will be required to verify and sign a completed Form 8879, IRS e-file Signature Authorization, and any similar state and local equivalent authorization form before your returns can be filed electronically. We DO NOT release returns until we have the completed form back in our office and therefore until the forms are received in our office your returns have NOT been filed. Some returns are rejected from e-filing and we need time to reprocess paper returns for mailing to assure they are timely filed.

Additionally, the government requires us to recalculate the returns that are over 10 days old from the original processing. Please return your authorization forms for release promptly.

In the event that you do not wish to have your tax returns filed electronically and prefer to paper file, please let us know as you will need to sign a paper filing statement. You will be responsible for reviewing the paper returns for accuracy, signing them, and mailing them timely to the tax authorities. You may wish to file them certified with return receipt to ensure proof of delivery.

14. Prior Year Tax Returns

If, during our work, we discover information that affects your prior-year tax returns, we will make you aware of the facts.

However, we cannot be responsible for identifying all items that may affect prior-year returns. If you become aware of any such information during the year, please contact us to discuss the best resolution of the issue. We will be happy to prepare appropriate amended returns for an additional fee.

15. Defalcations or Irregularities

Our work in connection with the preparation of your income tax returns does not include any procedures designed to discover defalcations or other irregularities fraud or theft, should any exist. The returns will be prepared solely from information provided to us without verification by us. We will render such accounting and bookkeeping assistance as determined to be necessary for preparation of the income tax returns for additional fees. In addition, we are not responsible for identifying or communicating deficiencies in your internal controls. You are responsible for developing and implementing internal controls applicable to your operation.

16. Privacy

Certain nonpublic information about you may be disclosed to provide information to affiliates of the firm and nonaffiliated third parties who perform services or functions for us in conjunction with our services to you. However, we will only make such a disclosure if we have a contractual agreement with the other party which prohibits them from disclosing or using the information other than for the purposes for which it was disclosed.

We will not respond to any request from banks, mortgage brokers or others for verification of any information reported on these tax returns without your express written consent and release via a standard form. Should you need such release, please contact our office to obtain the proper form. This is a federal regulation and implemented to keep your data safe and secure.

17. Under Estimation of Tax and Penalties

The law provides various penalties that may be imposed when taxpayers understate their tax liability. You acknowledge that any such understated tax, and any imposed interest and penalties, are your responsibility, and that we have no responsibility in that regard. If you would like information on the amount or the circumstances of these penalties, please contact us. Your returns may be selected for review by the taxing authorities. Any proposed adjustments by the examining agent are subject to certain rights of appeal. In the event of such government tax examination, we will be available upon request to represent you and will render additional invoices for the time and expenses incurred.

18. Disclosure

The Internal Revenue Code and regulations impose preparation and disclosure standards with noncompliance penalties on both the preparer of a tax return and on the taxpayer. Unless we have a reasonable belief that any tax position in your return will more-likely-than-not be sustained on its merits, a preparer penalty will be imposed on us unless that position has a reasonable basis and is adequately disclosed in the return. If we determine that we would be subject to a preparer penalty by delivering your return to you, you agree to either adequately disclose that position on your return or change the position to one that would not subject us to penalty. If you do not choose to change your position or adequately disclose so as to eliminate, in our sole opinion, our exposure to the preparer penalty, we, in our sole discretion and at any time, may withdraw from the engagement without completing or delivering tax returns to you. Such withdrawal will complete our engagement, and you will be obligated to compensate us for all time expended and to reimburse us for all out-of-pocket expenses through the date of our withdrawal. Our engagement with you will terminate upon our withdrawal.

We will use professional judgment in resolving questions where the tax law is unclear, or where there may be conflicts between the taxing authorities' interpretations of the law and other supportable positions. Unless otherwise instructed by you, we will resolve such questions in your favor whenever possible.

Certain communications involving tax advice between you and our firm are privileged and not subject to disclosure to the IRS. By disclosing the contents of those communications to anyone, or by turning over information about those communications to the government, you may be waiving this privilege. To protect this right to privileged communication, please consult with us or your attorney prior to disclosing any information about our tax advice. Should you decide that it is appropriate for us to disclose any potentially privileged communications; you agree to provide us with written, advance authority to make that disclosure.

Should we receive any request for the disclosure of privileged information from any third party, including a subpoena or IRS summons, we will notify you. In the event you direct us not to make the disclosure, you agree to hold us harmless from any expenses incurred in defending the privilege, including, by way of illustration only, our attorney's fees, court costs, outside adviser's costs, or penalties or fines imposed as a result of your asserting the privilege or your direction to us to assert the privilege.

19. Authorization to communicate with the IRS

The IRS permits you to authorize us to discuss, on a limited basis, aspects of your return for one year after the return's due date. Your consent to such a discussion is evidenced by checking a box on the return. Unless you tell us otherwise, we will check that box authorizing the IRS to discuss your return with us.

20. Audit Representation

Your returns may be selected for review by the taxing authorities. In the event of an audit, you may be requested to produce documents, records, or other evidence to substantiate the items of income and deduction shown on a tax return. Any proposed adjustments by the examining agent are subject to certain rights of appeal. In the event of a tax examination, we will be available, upon request, to represent you. However, such additional services are not included in the fees for the preparation of the tax returns. This engagement does not include responding to inquiries by any governmental agency or tax authority. If you are contacted by a tax authority, either for an examination or other inquiry, you may request our assistance in responding.

21. Verbal Opinions

Although we may orally discuss tax planning issues with you from time to time, such discussions will not constitute advice upon which we intend for you to rely for any purpose. Rather, any advice upon which we intend for you to rely, and upon which you will rely, will be embodied in a written report or correspondence from us to you, and any such writing will supersede any prior oral representations between the parties on the issues.

Previously we could offer prompt advice to you regarding the tax issues based on our experience and expertise without lengthy analysis. Now, any written tax advice (including emails) must include verification of the facts, discussion of all of the appropriate tax laws, conclusions as to the applicability of the tax laws and other discussions --- a great deal more than previously required. In most cases, in order to reduce your accounting fees, we will not issue a formal federal tax opinion unless required or requested by you. Instead, we will normally provide the required disclaimer. The disclaimer will read as follows: "Any accounting, business or tax advice contained in this communication, including attachments and enclosures, is not intended as a through, in-depth analysis of specific issues, nor a substitute for a formal opinion, nor is it sufficient to avoid tax-related penalties. If desired RT Tax & Consulting, LLC would be pleased to perform the requisite research and provide you with a detailed written analysis. Such an engagement may be the subject of a separate engagement letter that would define the scope and limits of the desired consultation services."

22. Fees

Our fee for these tax services will be based upon our current standard billing standards for the personnel working on the engagement, plus out-of-pocket expenses. All invoices are due and payable upon presentation. Interest at 21% may be charged on invoices which are not paid within 30 days.

23. Communication

In connection with this engagement, we may communicate with you or others via email transmission. As emails can be intercepted and read, disclosed, or otherwise used or communicated by an unintended third party, or may not be delivered to each of the parties to whom they are directed and only to such parties, we cannot guarantee or warrant that emails from us will be properly delivered and read only by the addressee. Therefore, we specifically disclaim and waive any liability or responsibility whatsoever for interception or unintentional disclosure of emails transmitted by us in connection with the performance of this engagement. In that regard, you agree that we shall have no liability for any loss or damage to any person or entity resulting from the use of email transmissions, including any consequential, incidental, direct, indirect, or special damages, such as loss of revenues or anticipated profits, or disclosure or communication of confidential or proprietary information. (See also our communication security section 29).

24. Records

It is our policy to keep records related to this engagement for five (5) years. RT Tax & Consulting, LLC does not keep any original client records, so we will return those to you at the completion of the services rendered under this engagement although some documents may be copied or scanned for our files. When records are returned to you, it is your responsibility to retain and protect your records for possible future use, including potential examination by any government or regulatory agencies. You acknowledge and agree that upon the expiration of the five (5) year period, we are free to destroy our records related to this engagement. The balance of our file, other than a copy of your income tax return, which we will provide to you at the conclusion of the engagement, is our property, and we will provide copies of such documents at our discretion and be compensated for any time and costs associated with the effort.

25. Joint Returns

If the income tax returns we are to prepare in connection with this engagement are joint returns, and each of you sign those returns, you are each our client. You each acknowledge that there is no expectation of privacy from the other concerning our services in connection with this engagement, and we are at liberty to share with either of you, without the prior consent of the other, any and all documents and other information concerning preparation of your returns. We will require, however, that any request for documents or other information be communicated to us in written form. You also acknowledge that unless we are notified otherwise in advance and in writing, we may construe an instruction from either of you to be an instruction on your joint behalf. We require a consent to release information be signed to release any information to a third party per Internal Revenue Service regulations.

26. Dispute Resolution

The parties to this engagement agree that any dispute that cannot be settled through negotiation that may arise regarding the meaning, performance or enforcement of this engagement will first attempt in good faith to settle the dispute by mediation before resorting to arbitration, litigation or some other dispute resolution procedure. The mediation is to be administered by a mediator to be agreed upon by the parties involved. The results of this mediation shall be binding only upon agreement of each party to be bound. Cost of any mediation proceeding shall be shared equally by both parties. If the dispute results in litigation, the statutory limitation period will begin to run immediately upon completion of the engagement, and your damages will be limited to the amount of the fee paid to us for the engagement.

27. Litigation

Any litigation arising out of this engagement, except actions by us to enforce payment of our professional invoices, be asserted within one year from the date any such cause of action accrues, or within three years of the completion of the engagement, whichever is earlier, notwithstanding any statutory provision to the contrary.

28. Contract

This engagement letter is contractual in nature, and includes all of the relevant terms that will govern the engagement for which it has been prepared. The terms of this letter supersede any prior oral or written representations or commitments by or between the parties. Any material changes or additions to the terms set forth in this letter will only become effective if evidenced by a written amendment to this letter, signed by all of the parties.

29. Withdrawal

We have the right to withdraw from this engagement, in our discretion, if you don't provide us with information we request in a timely manner, refuse to cooperate with our reasonable requests or misrepresent any facts. Our withdrawal will release us from any obligation to complete your return and will constitute completion of our engagement. You agree to compensate us for our time and out-of-pocket expenses through the date of our withdrawal at the time of the return of your records.

30. Communication security

We treat the protection of your confidential, private, financial and other information very seriously and have instituted policies and procedures designed to protect such information. Our new policies and procedures are aligned with the Colorado Protections for Consumer Data Privacy Law (CO HB18-1128) and Internal Revenue Service publication 4557 guidelines.

Please understand that according to the Colorado Protections for Consumer Data Privacy Law, it is now illegal for us to send private data such as tax returns to you via unencrypted email.

In order to maintain confidentiality and security of your data, documents, and the communications between us, it is now our policy to use encrypted email, encrypted phone, and an encrypted document control system whenever private communication channels are required. This includes the transmission or discussion of your tax returns and other private financial matters.

1. For encrypted email, we prefer to use Office 365 at our normal email addresses but are available through Proton Mail at rttaxes@protonmail.com as well. If you set up a Proton mail account, please notify us of your new email address and we will use that method to contact you. Proton mail is a free encrypted email service.

2. For encrypted phone calls, we prefer to use Zoom.

3. For document control, we prefer to use our secure portal accessible through our website. If you need set up through the portal, please let us know.

If you do not use these systems because you believe they are inconvenient, then you acknowledge that you prefer to use unencrypted email, text, and voice services because of their convenience and that you are aware of and accept the risks of any adverse consequences, which could include the loss of any applicable accountant-client privilege and accountant work product confidentiality, and other protections and the exposure and disclosure of your confidential information. If we send you a file it will be encrypted with the method you select (i.e. encrypted file through email or use of the portal).

31. Closing

If there are other tax returns you expect us to prepare, such as beneficial ownership, gift and/or property, please inform us.

Please visit our website at www.rttaxes.net for newsletters, financial tools and links to other information as well as a file share utility and client portal to assist in transferring large files securely. We also have a payment link on our website if you would like to pay via credit card, Square, Venmo @RTTAXES, Zelle at 303-525-0275, or you may contact our office for payment plans if necessary. We are unable to start work on your current returns unless your balance has been paid in full from the prior year (unless alternate arrangements have been made with our firm in advance).

It is our duty to prepare your returns based on the same standard of care that a reasonable tax return preparer would exercise in this type of engagement. Unless otherwise noted, the applicable standard of care for a "reasonable tax return preparer" shall be based upon the following pronouncements:

the Statements on Standards for Tax Services ("SSTS") issued by the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants ("AICPA");

U.S. Treasury Department Circular 230 ("Circular 230"); and the Internal Revenue Code, Treasury Regulations, and any applicable state/local corollaries (collectively, "the Code").

As tax return preparers, these pronouncements also prohibit us from signing a tax return unless we have a reasonable belief that there is substantial authority for tax positions taken on the tax return, or we have a reasonable basis for tax return positions taken on the return which are disclosed as required by the Code. If you request that we report a tax position on your return which we feel is contrary to published guidance, frivolous, or a willful attempt to evade tax, we will be unable to proceed. If you are unwilling to disclose a position where required or we conclude that your failure to disclose does not permit us to sign your tax return, we will be unable to proceed.

It is your responsibility to safeguard your assets and maintain accurate records pertaining to transactions. We will not hold your property in trust for you, or otherwise accept fiduciary duties in the performance of the engagement.

We will prepare your tax returns based upon your filing status (single, married filing jointly, married filing separately, head of household or qualifying widow[er] with dependent child) as reflected in your income tax returns for last year. If your filing status has changed, you wish to change your filing status, or you have questions about your filing status, please contact us immediately.

We will not make any management decisions or perform management functions on your behalf.

We want to express our appreciation for this opportunity to work with you.

Sincerely,

RT Tax & Consulting LLC
